Webster Herald: It is currently ported that the Cope Kaolin property is deeply involved in trouble. A party with an investigating turn of mind discovered that the land upon which the mine wa located was State land, having never been entered. So acting upon a due regard for his own interests instead those of others, he proceeded to enter in and procured a state grant for the same the is now happy, says our informant and the speculators are correspondingly miserable. This is another proof of the old adage, "look before you leap." The Gudger House, 211 Haywood street, is still open for boarders under the management of Mrs. N. B. Atkinson, and is not for rent.

Continued Bargains at Law's. In order to reduce the stock in man lines, during the rest of this month, large reduction will be made on man fine and common goods, varying fre ten to twenty-five per cent. The lines of colored glass must be closed out.

A full line of "Full Dress" embroidere hirts, and neckwear can be had a Mitchell's No. 28 Patton avenue.
